Meeting the requirements of the Adventurous Journey Section

- The Adventurous Journey team consisted of the required 4 – 7 members (or 8 in pair sports), who were included on the list provided by the Supervisor.
- The members of the team were peers with similar levels of skills and experience in the chosen mode of travel and environment.
- All team members were within the age range required for the particular level.
- The team did not include anyone who has already completed an Adventurous Journey of the same or higher level.
- The participants underwent the required training and a sufficient number of practice journeys (at least one with a length corresponding to the chosen level and in conditions similar to those of the qualifying journey if possible).
- The team prepared, planned and organized the Adventurous Journey themselves.
- The Adventurous Journey had a chosen aim and the participants strived to meet it.

Aim of Adventurous Journey: _____

- The Adventurous Journey was the length required for the particular level.
- The Adventurous Journey met the minimum hours of purposeful effort per day.
- The Adventurous Journey took place on a route that was new for all team members.
- The team traveled independently (i.e. without help or intervention from the Supervisor or other people) and self-reliantly (i.e. independent of outside help and technology).
- The Adventurous Journey was undertaken by the participant's own physical effort (i.e. without using any motorized or other vehicles).

Mode of travel: _____

- Accommodation was in tents carried by the team (or in other basic accommodation with meals prepared by the team).
- All participants had appropriate equipment.
- The team cooked and ate at least one warm meal a day (optional on last day of the journey).
- The Adventurous Journey was remotely supervised by adults, in particular by the Supervisor.

- The team did not know the times and places of meetings with the Assessor beforehand.
- The team is aware of the requirement to jointly prepare and present a report on the journey, has agreed on the form of the report and the following deadline for its preparation: _____.
